Diseases and Karma

Every human body is prone for diseases of various nature. The types of diseases depend upon one's Karma i.e. one's past deeds in the previous births. Hindus believe that the law of karma is responsible to attribute diseases, from time immemorial depending on whether the karmic effect is Sanchita or Prarabdha.

The cumulative effects of good or bad deeds in the past births is felt in this birth in the form of good or bad health which is essential for a man's enjoying and suffering of life. Apart from health, all factors connected to the life are revealed in a horoscope called also a Karmic chart or Vidhi chart.

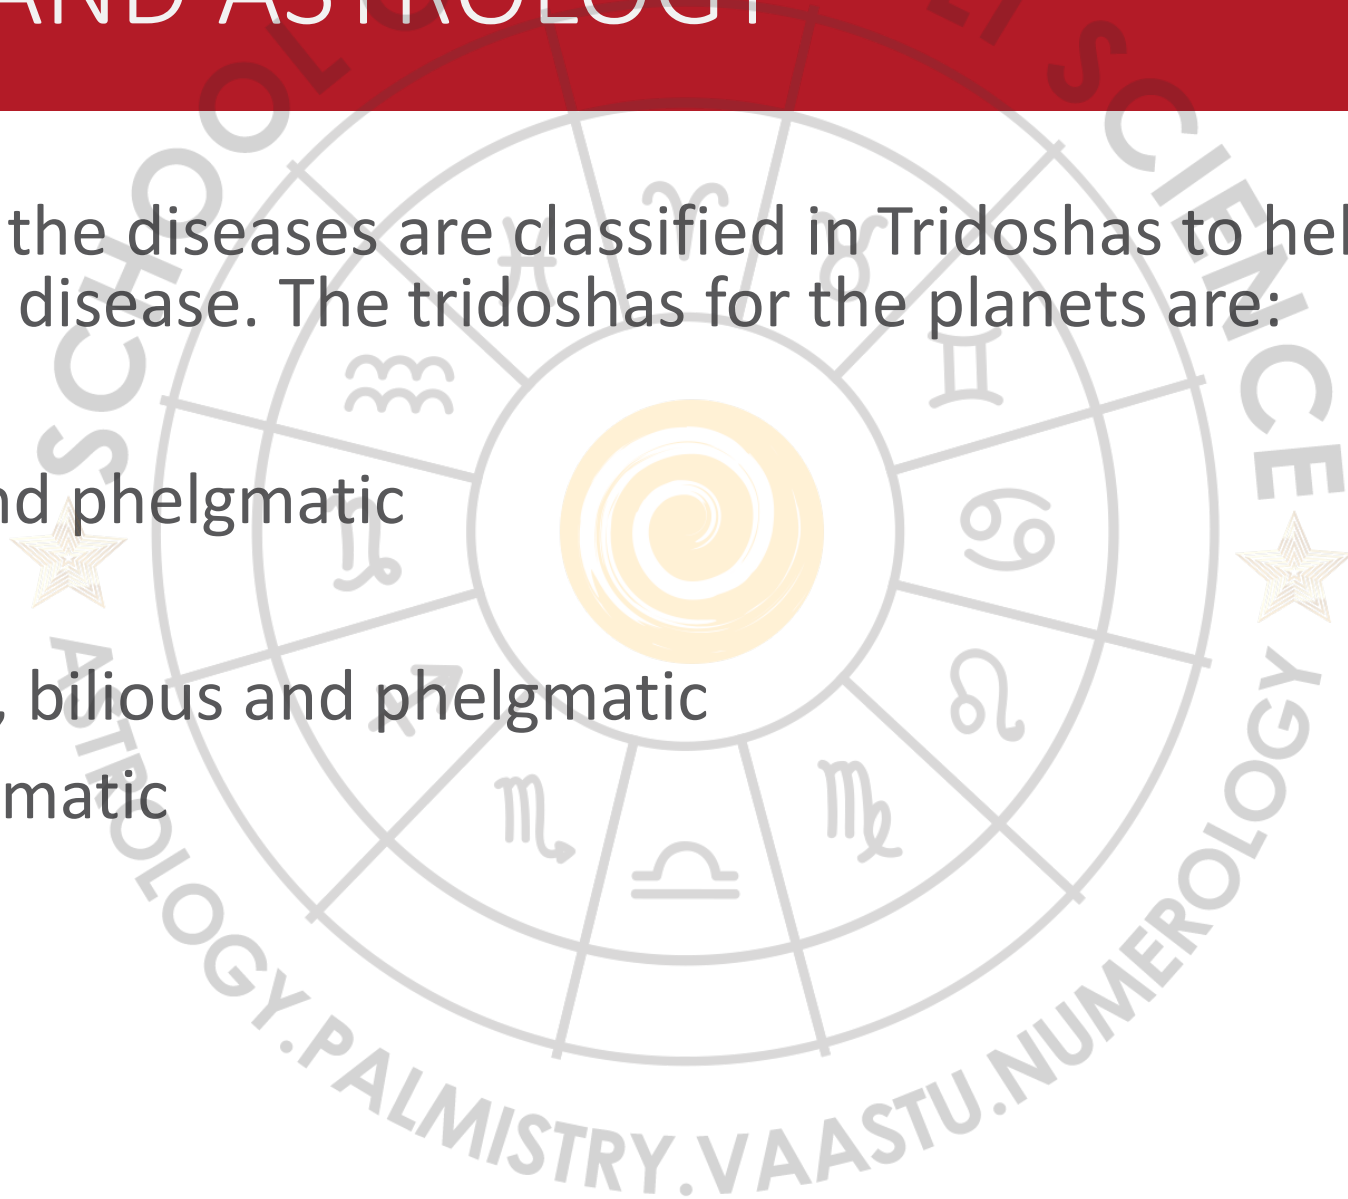

There are three different types of karma:

- Sanchita karma (accumulated works),
- Prarabdha (fructifying works), and
- kriyamana or agami (current works).

Prarabdha karma is experienced through the present body and is only a part of sanchita karma which is the sum of one's past karmas, and agami karma is the result of current decisions and actions.
