Horoscope Analysis

- House
- House Lord
- Significator or Karak

PAC

Position, Aspect and Conjunction

Assess the strength of a house or an aspect of life which needs to be evaluated based on the house, its lord and its significator.

House :

- Consider the planets posited in a house, conjunctions they are making. Also observe lordship of the planets posited in the house. Lord of trik houses destroys the significations of that house.
- Observe all the aspects on the house – which ones are benefic aspects and which ones are afflictions. Any malefic planet will generally have malefic afflictions on the house unless it is lord of that house.
- Consider if yogas are formed in the house.

House, House Lord and Significator

House lord :

- Consider the position of the house lord. If house lord is posited in 6,8,12 houses from ascendant or even from house itself then it is not good for significations of the house. Similarly the house lord should not be in enemy's sign.
- Consider conjunctions if any made by the house lord. Conjunction with a malefic means affliction.
- Consider all aspects on the house lord. Again any malefic aspect will affect adversely significations of the house.
- Consider the state of house lord. It should not be combust or debilitated.
- Consider if house lord is involved in any yogas.

Significator :

- Significator plays an important role in giving results. There are different significator for different aspects of life. For Example, Significator for marriage is Venus; for intelligence and business is Mercury; knowledge, prosperity and progeny significator is Jupiter and so on.
- For giving favourable results pertaining to the signification of a house, the significator should be well disposed off and should not be combust, debilitated, in enemy's sign or afflicted. For this consider the position of the significator, conjunctions and aspects.
- Consider if significator is involved in any yogas.

Dasha and Transit

After analyzing House, House Lord and Significator, assess whether the chart is giving Promise of the event.

Promise of the event may NOT be there if :

- a) Concerning house is badly afflicted and
- b) House lord is also badly afflicted and
- c) Significator is too weak to give favourable results.

If any of the above are strong enough then the event might get delayed but would happen.

Once Promise of the chart has been ascertained then for timing of event look for :

- i) Concerned relevant dasha
- ii) Check if transiting planets are in favour of the event during the relevant dasha period.

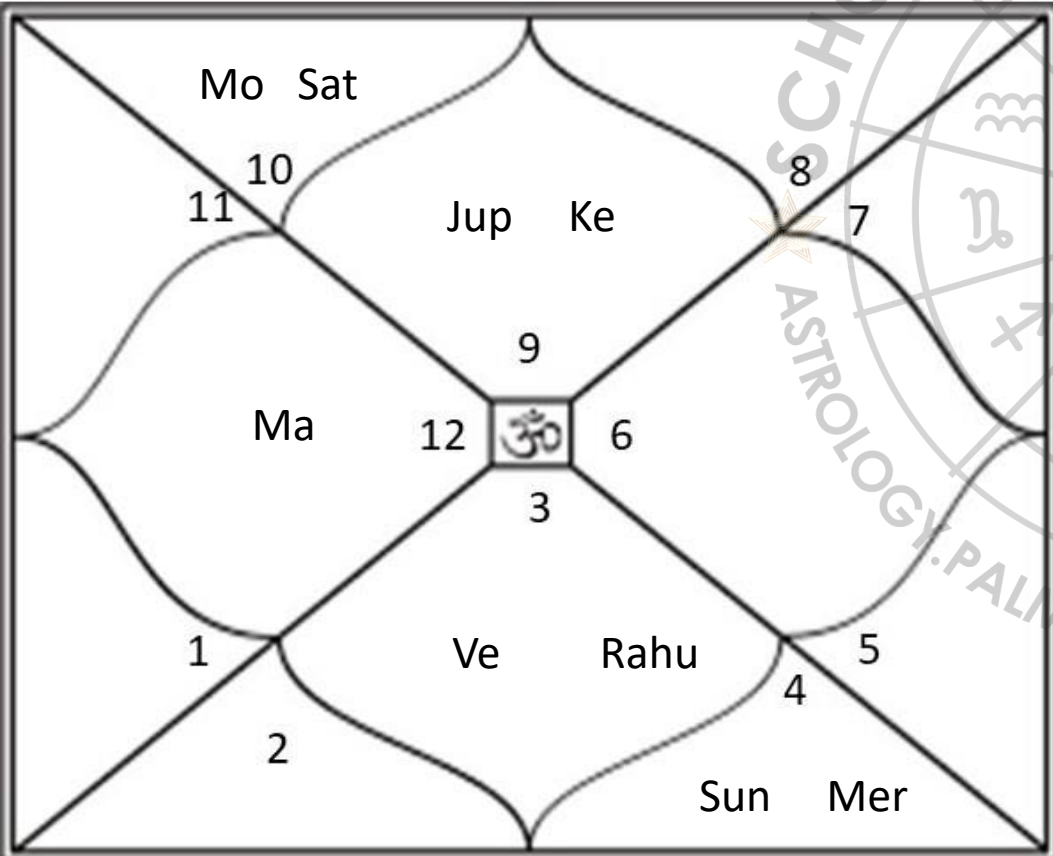

An Event takes place only when there is Promise, favourable dasha and favourable gochar.
