Transit

- The planets presented in the horoscope are the fixed positions at the time of birth. These planets are called natal planets.
- After birth, the movement of the planets in various signs indicates transit and the planets are called transiting planets or gochar.
- According to Vedic Astrology, the fate of a person depends on the combined effect of natal horoscope, dashas of planets and transit.
- Predictions can be made only by combining the results of various yogas, dasha and transit. The importance of these methods in prediction has a following order:
  - Yogas
  - Dasha – antardasha
  - TransitsIf yogas are not favourable, dashas and transit will not be able to give good results.
- Among all ascendants (Janma Lagna, Chandra Lagna and Surya Lagna) the Chandra Lagna is supreme for transit analysis.

Transit governed by Dashas

- Transit works under Mahadasha and Antardasha. If the operating dasha-antardasha are of malefic planets but transit is favourable, the native will not have good results of transit.
- A planet which is well placed in birth chart will give good results as soon as it comes in favourable position in transit but the planet which is inauspicious in birth chart will fail to give good results even if it comes in favourable position in transit.
- Hence we can say that transit predictions are dependent on the position of planets in the natal chart.

General Rules for Transit Predictions

1. When aspects of planets are beneficial and transitory planets are also favourable, positive results are obtained. If planetary combinations of horoscope are good but transit is bad then less benefic effects and more unfavourable results will be seen.
2. In the study of transit, all combinations of natal and transitory planets are not important but conjunctions and mutual yogas are important. Of these conjunctions are most important in transits.
3. Certain houses of the horoscope are important. The transit of Sun, Saturn, Jupiter and Mars over these places gives visible results. The bhava starting of lagna, middle of 10th house and the degrees of natal Sun, Jupiter and Moon are important and therefore the Transit and the conjunction of planets over these locations give significant results.
4. Moons travels very fast – two and 1/4 day in a sign, so its transit results are not very significant. However transit of Moon is important particularly for study of diseases or danger. If Jupiter is placed in 5,9,10 or 11th house of horoscope, then the transit of Moon over natal Jupiter gives benefic results for money. These days give comfort and success.

Sade Sati

When Transiting Saturn transits one sign before Moon sign, sade sati is said to start. Sade sati continues as Saturn transits over Moon sign and then a sign after moon sign.

Since Saturn takes 2 and half years to travel through one rasi, it takes 7 and half years to complete before moon rasi, moon rasi and after moon rasi. Hence Sade Sati.

Ideally we should consider 45 degrees before and 45 degrees after Moon longitude as the period of Saturn's Sade sati transit.

Effects of Sade Sati

Sade Sati tends to bring disappointments, hurdles, disputes and disharmony in one's life.

Three cycles of Sade Sati

- There are three cycles of Sade Sati. The first cycle is known to affect close relatives more than the native. The first cycle takes place when Saturn transits the 12th house from moon for 2.5 years. The effect of this can be on the native's finances and it can cause debt.
- In the second cycle, Saturn can impact the domestic sphere of the native and can create health and financial troubles, loss of friends, loss of self confidence etc. Second cycle is when Saturn transits first house from moon for 2.5 years. However, what needs to be taken in consideration is the fact that these results will only occur if the Saturn is acting as a pure malefic in the native's horoscope. If it is not a pure malefic, then the native will get mixed results.
- The third cycle can impact the health, children, cause mental and physical distress, loss of wealth, disputes with close ones and sufferings. This cycle takes place when Saturn transits in the second house from Moon.

Saturn Dhaiya

- Enemies may have an upper hand during this period.

- May even think about changing your business.
- May face problems in family. May become rude and lose your wealth.

It is not necessary that it will give bad results always. If Saturn is the lord of an auspicious house or is forming auspicious Yogas, then it will not create any troubles for you. Instead, you will achieve great heights and honour in your life because of it.
